THE DUKE OF KENT

Tucked away on Scotch Common in leafy Pitshanger, The Duke of Kent is a distinctive Ealing setting for bringing people together.

From relaxed summer parties in the garden to private dining, celebrations and corporate gatherings, the pub offers a choice of versatile spaces, seasonal food and plenty of room to make an occasion your own.

Behind its welcoming, contemporary feel is a fascinating piece of Ealing history. The Grade II listed building dates from 1929, designed by celebrated pub architect T. H. Nowell Parr, while the site itself was once home to Castle Hill Lodge, where Prince Edward, Duke of Kent — father of Queen Victoria — lived in the early 19th century.

Today, that heritage meets a more modern spirit: a beautiful garden, stunning Glasshouse, garden bar and BBQ, flexible event spaces and a warm, sociable atmosphere. In short, The Duke of Kent is a venue with history, character and everything you need to make an event memorable.

FAQS

What's the difference between deposit and card authentications?

A deposit is a fee that is used towards the total spend for your event, whether that will be the pre-order or bar tab on the day. A card authentication just secures your booking and the money is not charged unless you don't show up on the day or give less than 24 hours notice of cancellation or postponement.

What is your refund policy on deposits or pre-orders?

We do not allow for refunds 14 days or less from your booking date. all refunds are at the discretion of the general or deputy manager.

When do pre-orders need to be finalised by?

Pre-orders need to be finalised 7 days in advance of the booking date or 14 days in advance for hog roasts.

How can I pay for my deposit, card auth, or pre-order?

Payments can be paid either by online payment link, over the phone, or in person at the pub. Pre-order payments can be completed on the day or ahead of time using a payment link, just let us know.

Can we decorate?

You are welcome to decorate, but confetti and confetti balloons are strictly prohibited for the safety of our four-legged guests.

How long can kids stay for?

We are family-friendly, but children must depart by 9:30 PM. The playground closes at 9:00 PM.

Can we bring in our own entertainment?

To ensure a comfortable atmosphere for all our guests, external speakers, DJs, live bands, and children's entertainment (including bouncy castles) are not permitted anywhere on the premises. Depending on the size of your booking, we may permit face painters, just let us know.

FAQS

Can we bring in our own cake?

Absolutely! We will just need to serve this on a separate table from any pre-ordered catering, with an allergens disclaimer sign stating that we take no responsibility for any allergens or ingredients present in the brought-in outside food item.

What equipment is available to me in The Kent Room?

In our function room we have a large TV screen and provide all HDMI equipment to connect any audios and visuals. We have Aux cables and adapters for you to play your own playlists in this space only. If you require a very specific adapter for your device, you will need to bring this in.

Can I play my own music in the garden spaces?

No, we do not allow for guests to play their own music or bring speakers into the outdoor spaces.

Can I bring my dog?

Well-behaved dogs on short leads are welcome in most areas, but are not permitted in the Restaurant or Pantry.

Is there a dedicated events team to help with my booking?

No, but the management team are well equipped to help plan and run your function. Do let the team know if you have any questions.

Is your venue wheelchair accessible?

Our venue is wheelchair accessible in most spaces. We have a driveway ramp to the right-hand side of the building that leads to the garden for wheelchair access and an accessible toilet is available on the garden level and on the main bar level in The Pantry room.

Is there parking?

Yes, there is limited parking available in the car park in front of the pub, however we are unable to reserve spaces. There is parking on the side streets also (permit rules apply).

Can I come in earlier to set up?

This can be arranged if the space is available, we allow this 1 hour pre-event, but do let us know so we can check availability
